

Negroes Arrested On Assault Charge

David Gambrell, 18, Birmingham, and Albert Guy, 17, Douglas subdivision, both negroes, are locked up in the city jail as a result of an alleged attempt to assault two young white youths about a Raleigh Springs car en route to the city Wednesday. They were arrested by Patrolman C. M. Martin at the request of Scott Jordan and Eugene Williams, of Raleigh Springs, and charged with assault with a knife.

The cause of the trouble was not ascertained by police. Gambrell and Guy, with open knives, are said to have advanced on the two boys after the street car had passed Birmingham. Another white man came to the boys' rescue by jerking one of the car's windows rods loose and threatening the negroes. The incident nearly created a riot on the car.

The latter remained on the car until it reached Main and Adams, when Patrolman Martin was summoned as he passed on the street. The negroes will face City Judge Barker Thursday.
